Problems + Lessons

A stylized illustration of a person with dark hair and a beard, wearing a white shirt and a dark tie. They are holding their hands up to their head, with a glowing yellow lightbulb above their head, emitting rays of light. The background is a solid dark teal color.

- Connecting our code to User Interface
 - Started with the code
 - Created the UI which had conflict with the code
 - Had to adjust code
- Databases are everywhere
 - Looking up information, searching is an everyday thing
 - Gave us an idea how and where it is and how it can applied to real life situation, especially in the software world

Thank You!
